

Naming and Donor Recognition Policy

Reviewed & Approved by the Board of Trustees August 8, 2022

Private donations enable the Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library to enhance the level, extend the range and improve the quality of our collections and services to the community. Furthermore, donor recognition is a crucial component of fundraising. Through proper recognition, Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library can acknowledge financial support in a consistent and meaningful way, steward existing donors, and cultivate new relationships.

The naming of the Library's assets is of considerable significance to the Library for several reasons:

- The choice of persons selected for such recognition reflects how the Library perceives itself, its mission and its values;
- Since the Library's assets available for naming or recognition signage are limited while the number of individuals/corporations who could potentially be honored is much greater, the naming or recognition signage opportunities must be used judiciously;
- Names are usually attached to a particular asset for the life of the asset, while recognition signage is usually affixed for an agreed upon length of time; and,
- Care must be taken to ensure consistency in the tribute paid by the Library to its benefactors.

General Recognition Practices

- The Library Director and his or her designees are responsible for all donor recognition, and for the consistent implementation of these policies.
- The library administration will use the donor recognition policy to guide recognition discussions with prospective donors.
- Recognition policies apply to gifts or pledges received or committed from individuals, corporations, foundations and/or selected government entities recognized as a single donor. Gifts from a group of family members may be recognized for the combined total of gifts from the individual family members.
- Gifts received in full will be recognized for the amount received. Gifts pledged over a period of 5 years or less will be recognized at the full commitment amount upon receipt of appropriate gift documentation.
- Grants from foundations and corporations for program support or general operating support will be recognized as gifts in the month and year they are received.
- Deferred revocable gifts from which funds will be received at a future date will be permanently commemorated, subject to the donor's specific request and intent, only when the funds are irrevocably committed to Frankfort Community Public Library or the Clinton County Contractual Library or when the gift matures.

Naming Opportunities and Donations

- Naming refers to the recognition a donor receives for a gift of $25,000 or more. Naming may apply to a room or area included in the building itself. Naming recognition will be directly reflected in all references to the room, or area funded by the donor through signage, directional tools, and other materials such as media releases, publications, and internal and external communication, as appropriate.
- Opportunities to name rooms, or areas will be presented to individuals, foundations, community groups and/or corporations identified by the Library.
- Final approval for naming a room or area within the building will be the responsibility of the Library Director and the Library Board.
- Each Naming opportunity is unique and the desirability, visibility, prominence, and traffic flow of the specific room or area will guide the donation level that is suitable for a naming opportunity. Likewise, the naming of a specific room or area does not mean that the programs or physical spaces within an area are included in that naming opportunity.
- The donation amount for a naming opportunity for each room or area will be determined and approved by the Library Director and the Library Board as the plans for each area are prepared. In general, the gift level required for naming each room or area should reflect at least 50% of the construction cost
- Naming opportunities may be afforded to individuals who have given extraordinary service to the Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library. The individual must have left the service of the library, either in the capacity of employee, volunteer, supporter, or trustee, for a period of no less than one year unless otherwise excepted by a library board resolution. The library board has final authority for such naming.

Recognition Signage and Donations

- Recognition signage will be offered to any donor for gifts of $5000 or more. The recognition signage will be in the form of a standardized plaque with wording approved by the Library Director. This will include those donors who collaborate together to contribute a significant amount to the Library; however, signs will be consistent with other recognition signage in size and placement. Plaques will contain the name of the honoree(s). Recognition signage does not imply naming.
- The period of time a donor's name will be attached to a specific space or program will be negotiated at the time the gift is made
- Recognition of gifts over $499 will be acknowledged on the donor wall located in the Frankfort Community Public Library or on the donor wall of the branch library receiving the donation. The following giving levels are designated:
 - Donor $500-$3499
 - Benefactor $3500-$9999
 - Special Benefactor $10,000+

Endowment Recognition

- Benefactors of endowment gifts of $5000 or more may be recognized through the establishment of a named fund.
- Funds received for the Endowment that haven't been designated by the donor for one of the major categories will be placed in the Children's Endowment until that fund goal is met.

Time/Duration

- Where a room or area has been named, the Library will continue to utilize the name as long as the room or area remains in use to serve its original function.
- When the use of the room or area is changed or altered such that it must be demolished, substantially renovated, or rebuilt, it is within the discretion of the Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library to retain the use of the name, name another comparable area, or discontinue the use of the name. When it is proposed that the use of the name not be maintained, approval of the Library Board will be required.
- Recognition signage will be displayed for a period of up to 10 years. If the area where the signage resides is demolished, substantially renovated, or rebuilt within the agreed upon recognition period, the recognition signage will continue to be displayed in an appropriate location. After the agreed upon recognition period is complete, donors will continue to be recognized on the donor recognition wall.
- Under special circumstances, recognition of gifts in perpetuity will be considered. The decision to recognize a gift in perpetuity will be determined by the gift level and will be approved on a case-by-case basis by the Library Board.

Naming and Recognition Signage "In Memory"

The Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library recognizes that naming and recognition signage In memory of a loved one is a wonderful way to honor a life. Suggested wording will be provided and approved by the Library Director.

Publications

Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library may publish additional donor lists or rosters as deemed appropriate. Other publications, such as newsletters and brochures, may provide additional opportunities for donor recognition. When appropriate, donors may be recognized in publications that feature information on facilities or endowments they have supported.

Gift Agreements

Whenever a gift requiring naming or a restricted gift requiring recognition signage is negotiated, a gift agreement must be created and signed by the donor and the Library Board.

Gifts of Art

Gifts of Art may have a small plaque to indicate that the art is a donation to the Library. The type of plaque and wording will be consistent with the standards created for such purposes.

Non-Fulfillment of Pledges

With the approval of the Library Board, the Frankfort Community Public Library and the Clinton County Contractual Library reserves the right to withdraw naming opportunities if a donor defaults on a pledge payment or payments.

Change or Modification of Name

Where a donor has been recognized with Naming or Recognition Signage and the donor changes or alters their name, replacing or changing the existing signage will be at the expense of the donor.

Pre-Existing Naming Agreements

This policy does not apply to any arrangements that are in existence at the date the policy is adopted.

Exceptions and Revisions

Exceptions and/or revisions to this policy will be approved by the Library Board.
